Ana Pauker is at present under investigation and in the Malmaison Prison on Strada Plevnei, Bucharest, and is scheduled to be tried before the Rumanian Communist Party convenes in the autumn.

Comment: According to the Yugoslav newspaper Borba of 18 May 1954, Ana Pauker, Vasile Luca and other leading members of the government and Party are in a prison on Calea Victoriei (probably the Ministry of the Interior) and will soon be brought to trial. Borba also points out that one of the principal accusations which will be brought out against Pauker and Luca will be that they allowed the infiltration of hostile elements in the Party.
